

Dual Enrollment Course Pathway: NURSING

Lourdes University offers Dual Enrollment courses for all high school students to earn both high school and college credit, simultaneously. To learn more about our program options and how to apply, visit our website.

NURSING PATHWAY COURSE OPTIONS*

This list serves as a baseline for courses that work towards entry into the Nursing Program.

*The course options/requirements are not limited to this list.

Pre-Requisites to Nursing Program*	General Education Requirements for BSN*
ENG 101: College Composition (3)	Any English Literature course (3)
BIO/BIL 330: Anatomy and Physiology (4)	Any History course (3)
CHM/CHL 140: General, Organic and Biological Chemistry (4)	Any Art, Music or Theatre course (3)
PSY 110: General Psychology (3)	PHL 101: Introduction to Philosophy OR PHL 103: Introduction to Ethics (3)
PSY 210: Developmental Psychology –Life Span (3)
MTH 212: Statistics (3)

 Entry to BIO/BIL 330 requires a B or higher in HS biology OR biology placement test.

 Entry to CHM/CHL 140 requires a B or higher in HS chemistry OR chemistry placement test.

For a complete listing of all areas of study, course information and descriptions visit: Lourdes Course Catalog

Students will work with an academic advisor for course exploration, recommendations, and selection.

Contact Sarah Thomas: Academic Advisor for the College of Nursing
419-517-7443 | stthomas@lourdes.edu

For questions regarding the application and admissions process -

Contact Jordyn Lee: Admissions Counselor for Dual Enrollment
419-517-8915 | jlee3@lourdes.edu | <https://www.lourdes.edu/admissions/wolf-pack-plus>

